

International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health

World Health Organization

Contents

A. Introduction	1
1. Background	3
2. Aims of ICF	6
3. Properties of ICF	8
4. Overview of ICF components	11
5. Model of Functioning and Disability	22
6. Use of ICF	26
B. One-level classification	33
C. Two-level classification	37
D. Detailed classification with definitions	55
Body Functions	57
Body Structures	128
Activities and Participation	149
Environmental Factors	209
E. Annexes	257
1. Taxonomic and terminological issues	259
2. Guidelines for coding ICF	269
3. Possible uses of the Activities and Participation list	287
4. Case examples	292
5. ICF and people with disabilities	297
6. Ethical guidelines for use of ICF	300
7. Summary of the revision process	302
8. Future directions for the ICF	307

9. Suggested ICF data requirements for ideal and minimal health information systems or surveys	310
10. Acknowledgements	312

F. Index